

- Quick to Establish
- Easy to Sow in all Conditions
- Higher Rate of Germination
- Requires Less Water to Perform
- Disliked by Birds

PROCOAT refers to a micro nutrient coating designed to improve both accurate seed placement and initial growth establishment. The special coating ensures the seed retains water and is therefore suitable for use across a wide range of ground and weather conditions.